Louise,
You are a real sweet kid. I'm so glad we became better friends. Without Vicki this Religion class would be a real bore. We should get together this Summer we'll have a good time. Even though they take listening to your weekend activities and cute kicking or me or I won't be able to walk by the end of this year.
P.S. Quite the whole period.
Love Ya lots,
Masha

Louise,

So, are you ready for a terrific summer? We certainly deserve it after going through hell in Biology! Louise, you're a real sweetie and I'm glad you were in a few of my classes this year. Have a fantastic, sex filled summer with a gorgeous guy.

Love ya'
Amy

Louise,

So for we've made it through the year! Only 3 more years and we're free!! This year has been great except for biology. Next year should be better because we won't have to see SMI again. Have a terrific summer!!

I'm so glad this year is over - especially Biology - now it's down hill all the way. I can't believe how long & hard I've had to work this year. Very long, very hard, very difficult. I'm glad you're finally done with it. I hope you have a great summer & don't see yourself down here next year. I hope we'll be in some of the same classes next year. I hope you have a great summer, together, washed your hair, & taken a trip to the beach. Take care of yourself & your boyfriend, one of your oldest friends,

SR. KATHLEEN PADDEN, B.A., B.S.A., M.A., Principal. Sister's busy schedule also includes teaching American Government to the Seniors.

MRS. MARY SAWERS, B.S., M.A., Asst. Principal, Dean of Discipline. Mrs. Sawers also does a terrific job of teaching General and Intergrated Math.

Helping Us Develop

We at SUA are gifted with a staff of hard working and dedicated people faithfully contributing their service as administrators, teachers, maintenance and cafeteria workers, and much more. Their jobs are hard and their days are full, but in the end we see a job well done. So as we travel through the looking glass, we take their hand with confidence because we know they will not fail us. Let us show our appreciation by working to our fullest capacity and expanding the talents given to us. They have brightened our looking glass.

SR. SUSAN MURAWA, B.A., Asst. Principal, S.C. Advisor, Journalism. Her tireless efforts shine through in her work and her spirits are always aloft.

Art Department Draws Attention While

MRS. ETHELYN HOLT, B.A.
Art II, Art III, Art IV, Yearbook

MISS COLLETTE NICHOLAS
Art I, Crafts

The Art Department of St. Ursula Academy consists of four years of Art and four quarter courses of Crafts. The four different craft classes studied are: Ceramics, Fiber Arts, Textile Design, and Stitchery. Miss Collette Nicholas teaches Art I and each of the various craft classes. The instructor for Art II, III, and IV is Mrs. Holt. Art History is taken within the full year of Art and includes history of art past and present. Art expresses feelings of students.

Below: Shading with pen and ink is not an easy job, but a rewarding one as Lynda Herr's piece shows. Right: Concentration and self discipline are being applied by Patti Monaghan to her water color.

Brushing Up On Style

Art III students are absorbed in the "block head," a plaster head sculpture that stresses the planes of the face. Drawing it helps them to learn the structure of the head and face and prepares them for drawing life portraits.

Do you think these girls will be the future business executives of America? Below Right: Looking pleased with her strenuous efforts in Typing I, is Jamie Simmons who smiles down on her assignment. Above Right: Pointing the way to success in Accounting is Julie Metzger, joined by Sue Kelley, who appears to be pleased with Julie's answer.

Business Department, St. Ursula Academy

Whatever your aspirations in the business world, S.U.A.'s Business department is sure to have the course you are looking for. Classes offered are: Typing I and II, Business Communications, General Business, Accounting I, II, and Office Practice. Whether it is preparing for an executive position or receiving a basic knowledge of the world of business, the department is for you.

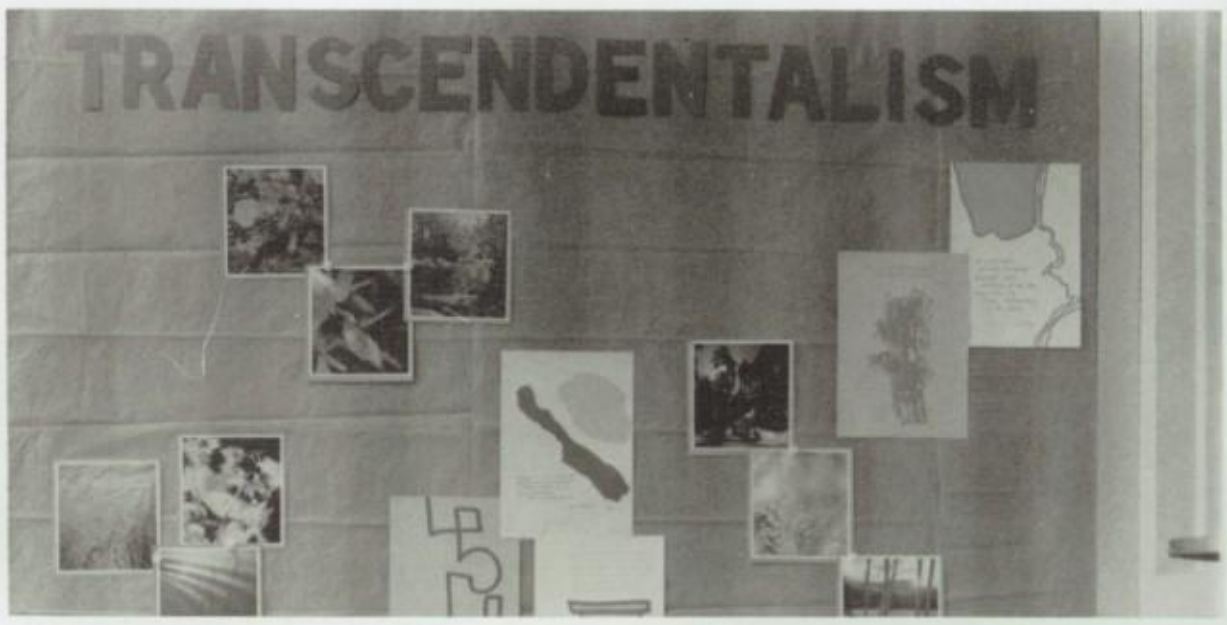
English Study Challenging

SR. MARY ROSE KRUPP M.A.
Advanced Composition
English Literature



One aspect of American Literature taught is the trend that writings have taken. Trancendentalism, one of the trends studied, is illustrated on Sr. Carol Reamer's board.

To prepare the Freshman students for their following years at St. Ursula and the college studies, the technique involved in writing a complete essay are taught. These techniques are used to create an easy flowing paper that is informative and concise. Above, Miss Lang offers assistance to the Frosh as they begin to develop their own essays.

In rating the English department at St. Ursula, one must certainly agree that it excels. This department is headed by Sr. Mary Rose Krupp. One unique quality of this department is that in the Freshman English course, the steps to writing a term paper are taught. And as a follow-up to this each girl is required to write one every year.

Right: While studying poetry in Creative Writing class, Sr. Mary Rose plays a poem recitation as Molly Lynch, Teresa Perretti, Liz Hamernik and Annette Brown follow the poem in written form.

In the English I classes, the Freshmen examine the various ways of communicating a message. One aspect of communication that the Frosh most enjoy is play-acting. Above, Kim Kwiatkowski attempts to hang Tammy Collins in a scene from "The Cat" by E.A. Poe.

Home Economics Expands To "funner and

In order to learn practical living habits, many students take one or more courses given by the Home Economics Department. Each year several field trips are taken to give insight into the careers that are open to students with a major in Home Economics.

"Hey wait just one minute, that isn't right!" exclaims Tracy Hornack as she tries to figure out a frustrating sentence in German.

One activity performed by the Spanish classes is the construction of Mexican piñatas. These paper-machèd figures are filled with candy and suspended from a high location. Here, Elizabeth Tulloh checks the progress of these newly-created piñatas.

Language Department Develops Culture

Relating their Latin vocabulary to their own families is fun for Terry Heban, Ann Wiedeman and Melanie Ware and makes what could be work into an interesting experience. Keep it up girls!

While walking down the hall during a normal school day, one may hear echoes of "Salvete omnes!" or "Comment allez vous?" This tells us that the language classes are in session. The language department of St. Ursula consists of French, German, Latin, and Spanish and is headed by Sr. Marie de Lourdes, chairperson of the department. Included in each language course are vocabulary, principles of grammar, pronunciation, reading and writing. In addition to this a basic insight into the culture of the respective country is explored and appreciated. To give the pupils the opportunity to experience this culture, they participate in activities related to their specific language through one of the many language clubs available. Many field trips extend the class activity into the community to deepen this insight.

MRS. ANNE-MARIE BEVINGTON, M.A. French I, II, III, IV

SR. MARY GERTRUDE STECH-SCHULTE, M.A., Latin I and II

"So you see, this is how the Spanish government rules their country and people," relates Janet Janson with her most interesting and informative speech. Captivated by all this information, JoJo Emmenecker is truly a "captive" audience.

To Sum It Up; Math Department Adds Up

MRS. PATRICIA McNICHOLS
M.S., B.Ed.
Algebra II, Probability and Statistics

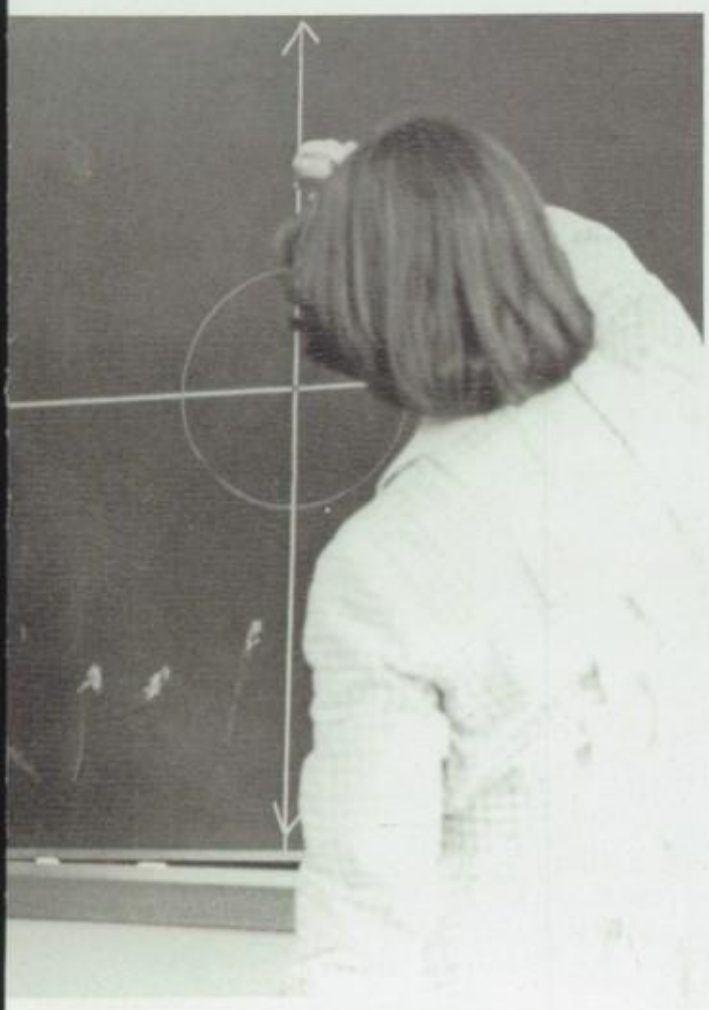
One of Sr. Carol Kronfield's Geometry students, Joy Jesionowski, has tremendous confidence in the results of the problem she is doing for the entire class to evaluate when she completes it on the board.

Above: Renee Kendzierski discovers that it may be easier to answer a trig problem with one of her dazzling smiles. Right: Sr. Anne Louise helps two obviously interested students, Lynn Martin and Elaine Margol, with their Trigonometry. Their attention doesn't seem diverted by Stephie Stoll who apparently knows what she is doing.

S.U.A.'s Math Department offers many courses for various academic needs. General Math, Algebra I & II, Geometry, Integrated Math, Probability and Statistics, and Trigonometry are some of the classes math students take. A good solid background in the Mathematic field can lead to numerous jobs in several exciting areas.

SR. CAROL KRONFIELD, B.A., B. Ed.,
Algebra I, Geometry.

Accepting the mental challenge that math gives develops a quick and logical mind. Gloria Sanford is using this type of mind in Trigonometry.



SR. ANNE LOUISE STOELZEL, M.T.S.,B.A., B.S.E., Found. of Alg. & Geo., Algebra II, Trig. & Analysis

Social Studies Broadens Minds at S.U.A.

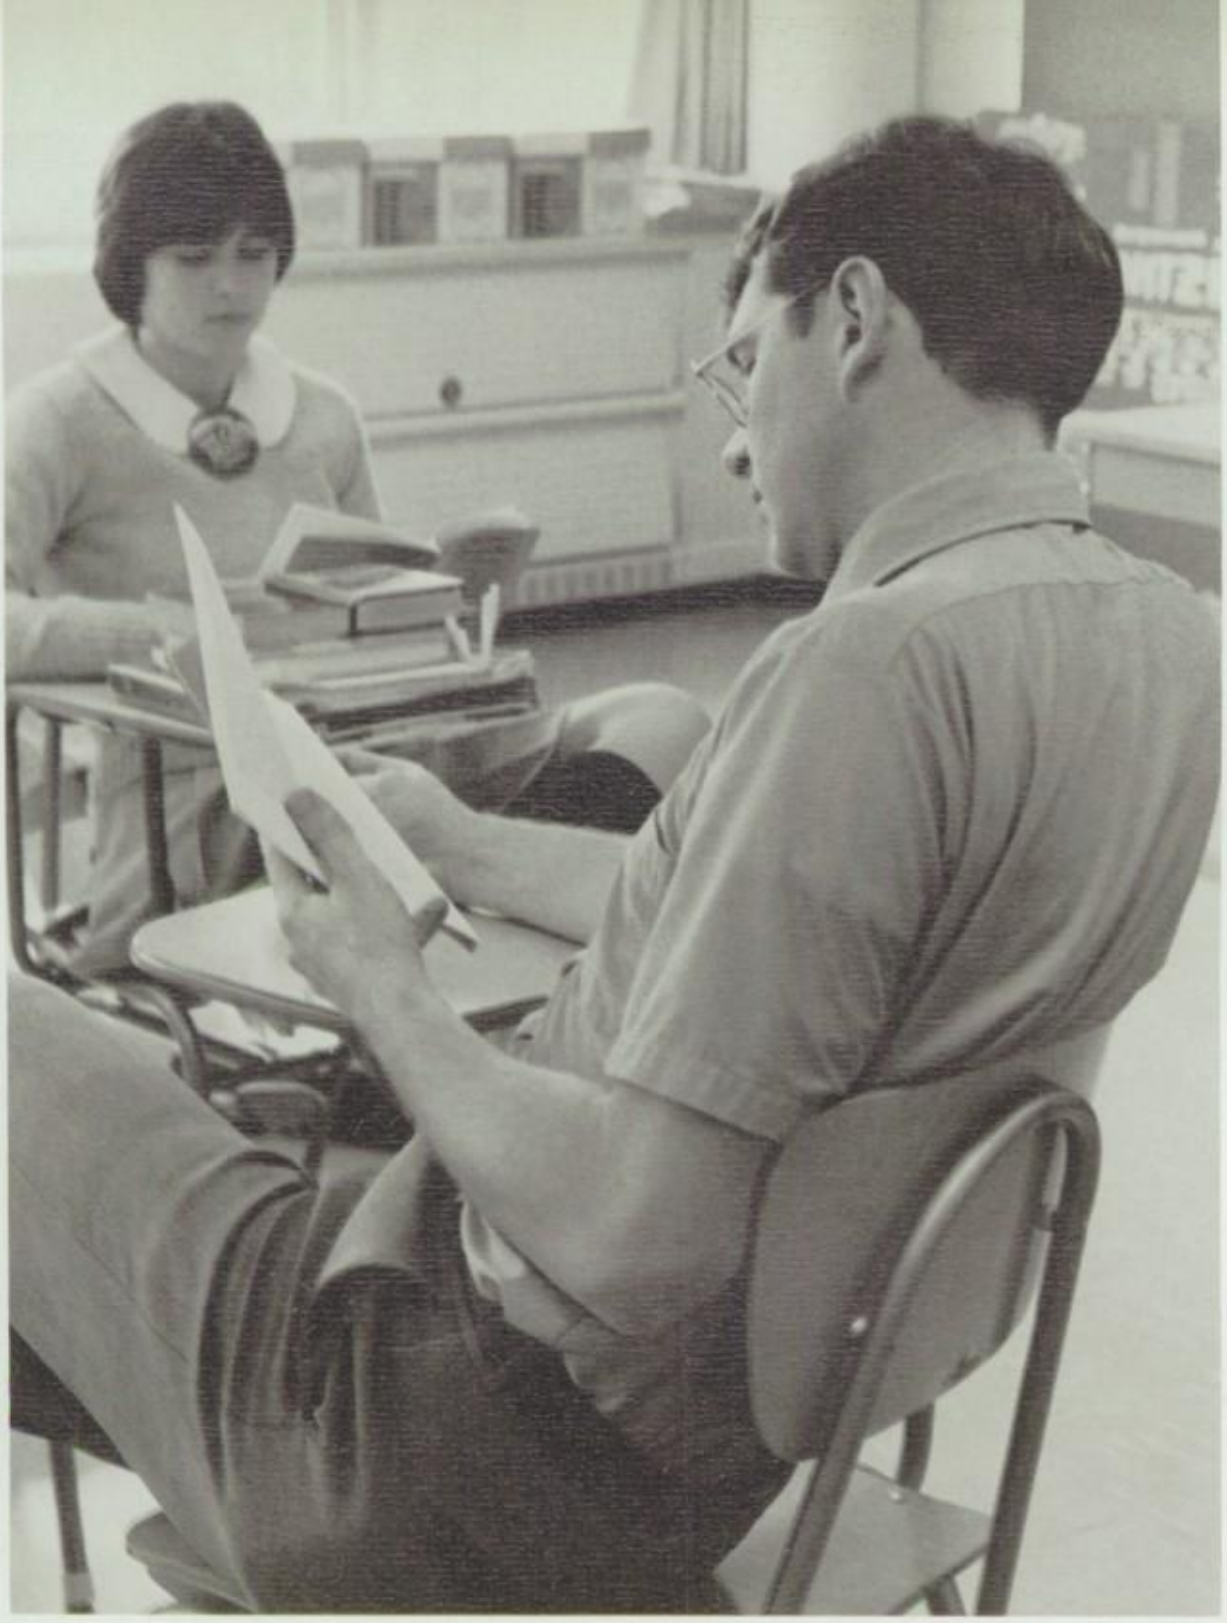
Any student who wishes to obtain a solid background in Social Studies can certainly do so at St. Ursula. The wide variety of courses in this area gives each girl a large selection from which to choose.

MRS. ANN OCHU, B.S.E., M.A., Anatomy and Physiology, General Physiology amd American Government.

American History is not only interesting but fun when a relaxed atmosphere prevails as with Mr. Maas, Monica Keller and Jenny Martin. Learning is then a pleasant experience.

MRS. CAROL ZAVAC, B.A., B.S., Latin, American History, and World History.

Below: Mrs. Zavac keeps the attention of her class by telling them about ancient Roman ruins she saw while traveling through Italy, as Tracy Antkowiak and Betsy White listen.

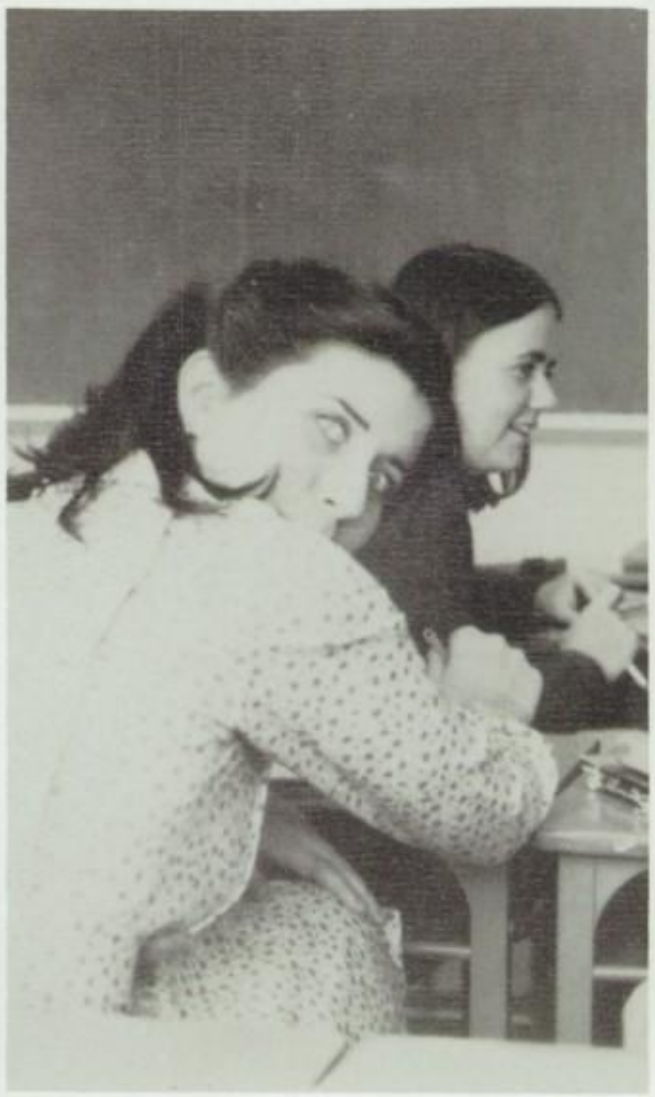


MR. DENNIS MAAS, B.S., American History, (Recent) and German I, II, III and IV.

Left: Mr. Maas' knowledge of history aids him in teaching German. This background is needed to fully understand all foreign cultures well.

Below: "I've heard of bad test grades, but this is ridiculous" exclaims Senior Diane Simon as she receives the bad news.

intently. These stories told by Mrs. Zavac in the World History class, teach the girls various traditions and cultures of each country studied throughout the year in class.



Athletic Talents Demonstrated in Phys Ed,

MRS. FRAN OVERBERG B.E.
Physical Education

Below: "Oh my goodness, what a terrific shot!" exclaims Mrs. Overberg, "See what comes with a lot of practice and good instruction? If you all girls could do as well, we would have a team of champions! So let's go girls! Get in there and keep practicing!"

Gymnastics Classes

The Physical Education department at St. Ursula is very well rounded. Headed by Mrs. Fran Overberg, the department aims to give a solid understanding of principles of health, sports, and gymnastics.

Above: Much skill and concentration is essential in performing top-rated routines on uneven bars. Here, Kim Kwiatkowski thinks about the next move she will enact in her routine. The gymnastics class learns techniques in using parallel bars and the balance beam.

Above: A demonstration on the balance beam is performed by Jodi Brzynski. Below: The practice necessary to do this enables her to make this perfect dismount look easy.

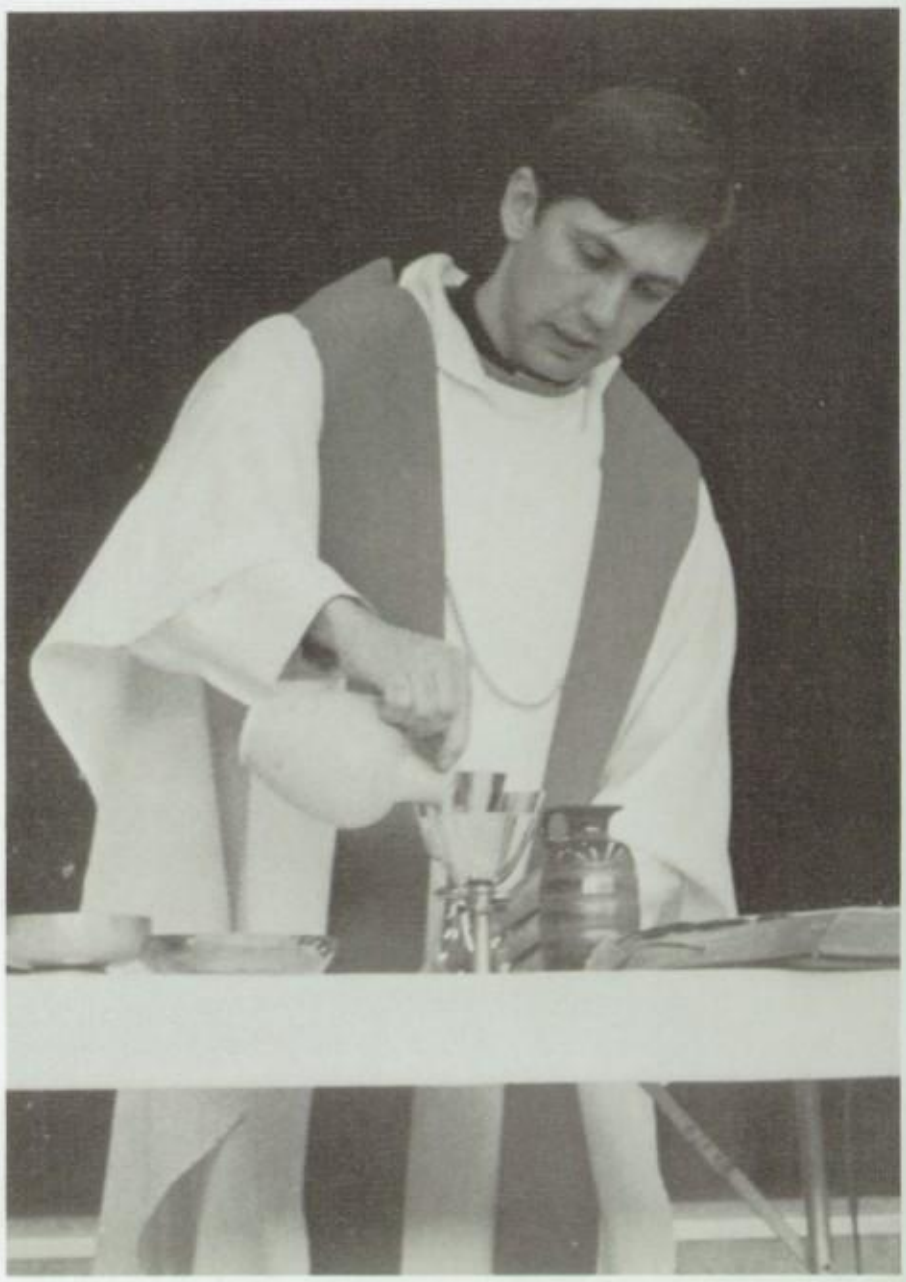
MRS. KAREN GALLOWAY
B.S., Health, Psychology, Gymnastics

SR. EILEEN SIMON, B.A., Religion II, III, Old and New Testament, Faith and Moral

MRS. CORNELIA HUSS, B.A., M.A., Religion I, III, IV, Marriage and Life Styles

Faith, Hope, Love = You

Everyone is a part of religion at SUA from students to teachers. It is a required course, from Freshmen to Senior year. Freshmen and Sophomores take a full year course and Juniors and Seniors take a semester of religion. When special events come up, the liturgy committee plans masses for the students and faculty.



Above: As the students sing the closing hymn at SUA's Thanksgiving Mass in the gym, Nonny Gantzos, carrying the cross in the recessional, smiles as if to say "Hey, look at me!" Coming up behind are Stacey Scharf and Ellie Lutz. As Stacey walks she whispers "slow down Nonny the candles might go out". Right: Fr. Mike Schoenhofer of Rosamy Cathedral mixes the water and wine in preparation for the most important part of the mass, the consecration, the transformation of the bread and wine into the body and blood of Christ. In his homily at the mass, Father Schoenhofer talked about how very thankful we should be for our families and all the other things we have, and remind us to remember and share with all of those who are less fortunate.

Left: Frequent communion is encouraged and the opportunity is given to the girls at the before school masses and at special liturgies for the entire student body. Fr. Thomas, a frequent celebrant of these masses, is seen here distributing communion. Below: Becoming actively involved in the liturgy is also encouraged, and at all of the special liturgies, one of various folk music groups lead the school community in song as Sr. Carol Reamer and Anneliese Steele are doing here. The folk groups also lead the singing for scripture services and other paraliturgical services.

Science: Exploration of Today's Tomorrow

SR. MARY JANE COSENTINO
Biology

Many of the greatest accomplishments ever made have been in the field of science. The men responsible for these accomplishments had a solid understanding of basic scientific principles — principles that are taught here in St. Ursula's department of Science. With the guidance of the Science department faculty, a student is sure to obtain the basics in this field of study and can advance to higher learning if so desired.

Right: In the Chemistry classes, students learn how to use experimental materials in their attempts at proving proposed theories. In the investigations that they conduct, the theories taken in class are put to use in the laboratory. Here, Kathy Miller and Judy Anderson try to achieve a chemical reaction through the use of heat, which would prove a theory explained in class. Experiments like this enable Chemistry students to understand the significance of these theories.

Reflections In Music

Nothing could be better than coming into S.U.A. in the morning and hearing the students of the Music Department practicing. The hard work and hours of training the Stage Band, Orchestra, Ensembles, Junior Choir, and Concert Choir put into their concerts really pays off. The annual Christmas and Spring Concerts are times we all look forward to with enthusiasm. The Concert Choir also gives performances outside of school.

SR. GERTRUDE MARIE B.A., B.S.E., B.M., Orch., Jr. Choir, Mus. Hist.

SR. CARMENCITA B.M. Multi Music Education, Music Theory, Orchestra

Singing and dancing its way into your hearts is the stupendous S.U.A. Show Choir. With bright smiles on happy faces the Show Choir chants and tells about life at St. Ursula in the program given for eighth graders visiting school during recruitment.

Accompanying fellow musicians, Laura Leininger lends her flute playing talent to the orchestra, resulting in an enchanting tune.

During a daily rehearsal of the Show Choir you can find Tracy Hornack, Mary Kolacki, Lisa Ayers and Pam Hullstrung vocalizing.

Above: Because the musicians of the Orchestra have their minds set on playing the correct notes, beautiful music is the result of their efforts. Below: A handful of the many golden voices belonging to the Junior Choir are: Betsy White, Roxann Sabo, Treva McCluney, Pam Ingles and Mara Yambor. The Junior Choir is a group worth hearing.

Music Lingers Through Halls of St. Ursula

"Is that an overgrown guitar you're tuning, Mary?" No, it must be a bass. Mary Towse is a member of the string ensemble group and has been practicing for St. Ursula's annual Christmas show.

The string ensemble practices diligently so that one day they might become members of the Toledo Symphony Orchestra. Their director, Mr. Kenneth Holland, was former conductor of the Toledo Youth Orchestra.

As Orchestra Proves Music Ability

You don't have to be musically inclined to join the orchestra here at St. Ursula. Sr. Gertrude Marie, the music instructor, offers lessons to the girls who want to learn to play any type string or brass instrument.

Above is the orchestra hard at work playing a version of "Carol of the Bells." This was just one of the songs featured at the St. Ursula Christmas show. This memorable event took place in the gym of St. Ursula on December 16. The orchestra also played "Christmas Fugue" and "Christmastide." Left: Stacey Scharf and Patti Escott are taking a break from their playing to rest their tired hands. Could Patti find playing the string bass funny?

Under the direction of Sr. Gertrude Marie, the concert choir performs at many extracurricular functions as well as at school activities. These girls practice many long hours in order to perfect their singing abilities and their performances show it.

Maintenance, Cafeteria Furnish Comfort

The staff of a school is the major ingredient of its being. Some important members of the St. Ursula staff are the cafeteria and maintainance members. A minimal amount of learning would take place if the school was unclean, frigid, or students hungry.

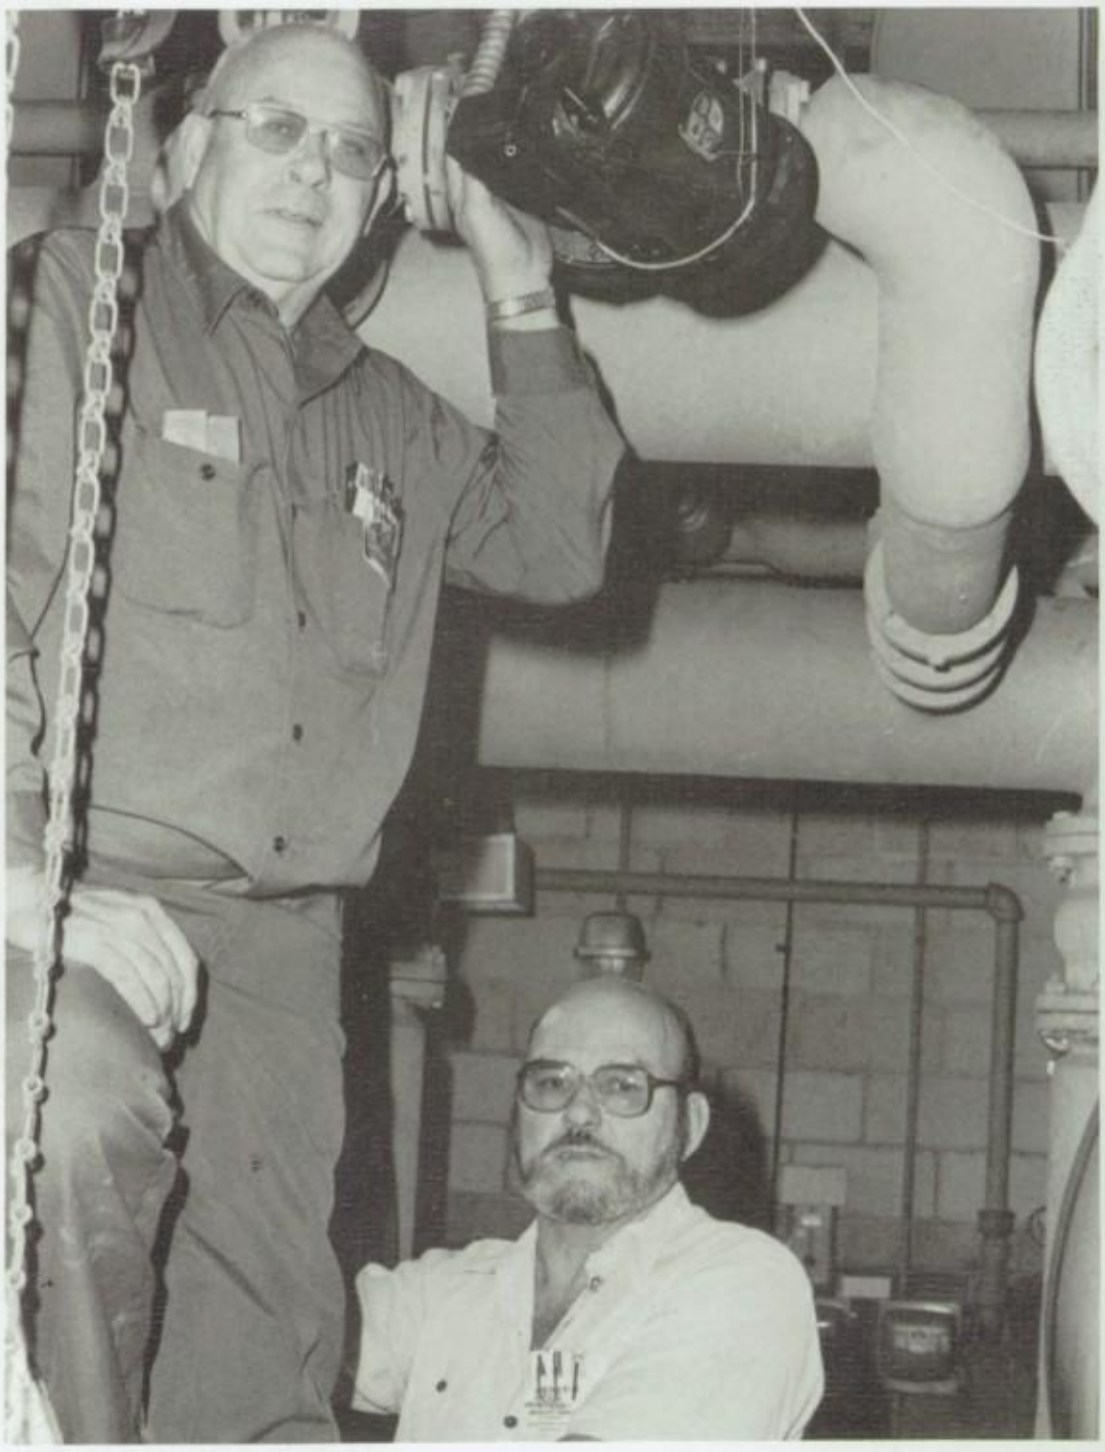
Right: If you ever wonder how St. Ursula is really kept running smoothly you can stop wondering. Tom Bohland and Francis McNutt make sure that Ursula survives.



Taking a short break from his work-filled day is Ben Blount, one of the most diligent, hard working maintenance men at St. Ursula.

To whom does that mysterious hand belong? Of course it's Mrs. Zaborski's, the mathematical wizard who handles the cafeteria's finances. Looking on are Judy Anderson, Jo-Jo Emmenecker and Johanna Meister.

An addition to the maintenance crew at S.U.A. is Bill McNally.

What can Amy Lewis and Beth Glesner be so happy about? Is it that delicious food purchased in the cafeteria or is it their anticipation of the upcoming weekend? Beth is probably thinking of the Utopian times she had in Boston while Amy waits to hear her new record album.

Frosh Elect Four to Guide Class

A sound understanding of what leadership involves certainly describes the attitude of this year's Freshman class officers. The girls selected to take on this challenge are Kim Kwiatkowski — President, Patty Mahoney — Vice-President, Jill Decker — Secretary and Molly Boney — Treasurer. Together they have accomplished many tasks while becoming oriented to life at St. Ursula. As new members of our school, the officers have given their individual talents to spread the spirit and enthusiasm which is evident throughout the Freshman class. These four certainly exhibit leadership traits.

Frosh Get Acquainted With Big Sisses

The Freshmen have been adopted by their big sisters, the Juniors. A Freshman's big sis is her first friend here at St. Ursula Academy. A big sis is someone a lil sis can count on and reach out to for a helping hand when she is in need. She is someone to have fun with and share good times with. The big and lil sis often have lunch exchanges, they have picnics, and go out to breakfasts together. On special days such as birthdays, on Christmas, Valentines Day and Easter they decorate each others lockers with various goodies.

As Kim Wheeler and Chris Perretti try to finish the delicious lunch that their sisses have made for them, they listen very closely to an interesting story. Meanwhile Kim Kwiatkowski tries to get their attention.

Sophs Show Up Seniors' Spirit in 1980-81

The week of November 3rd to the 7th is one that few Sophomores will forget; this was Spirit Week. During these four days, the Sophs worked hard to demonstrate their "super spirit" to other classes.

Climbing to the top with lots of spirit are ten very enthusiastic Sophomores. Can you identify any of them? If not, ask any Sophomore for help.

Living it up before returning to "Monday" are exhuberant sophomores Carol Stevens, Jill Modrich, Kris Ulmer, Ellyn Langenderfer, and Laura Gerbasi respectively. The event, a sunny, fun-fulled picnic with those gallavanting males from St. Johns High School proved to be a day to add to their high school memories of new friends they had made.

These Sophomores are really showing their spirit during Spirit Week as they yell "Hey! Look at us!" They really showed up the Seniors during the powder-puff football tournament. That car is so loaded down with all those sophs that we wonder whether or not the car is going to make it around the school parking lot.

Talented Sophs Show Creative Abilities

The "Super Sophs" possess a lot of creative talent and they certainly have proven it throughout the year. One example of this talent is expressed by Kelly Carney. She designed a window display that was shown in Sylvania, for which she won a blue ribbon. Talent flourishes in the class of '83.

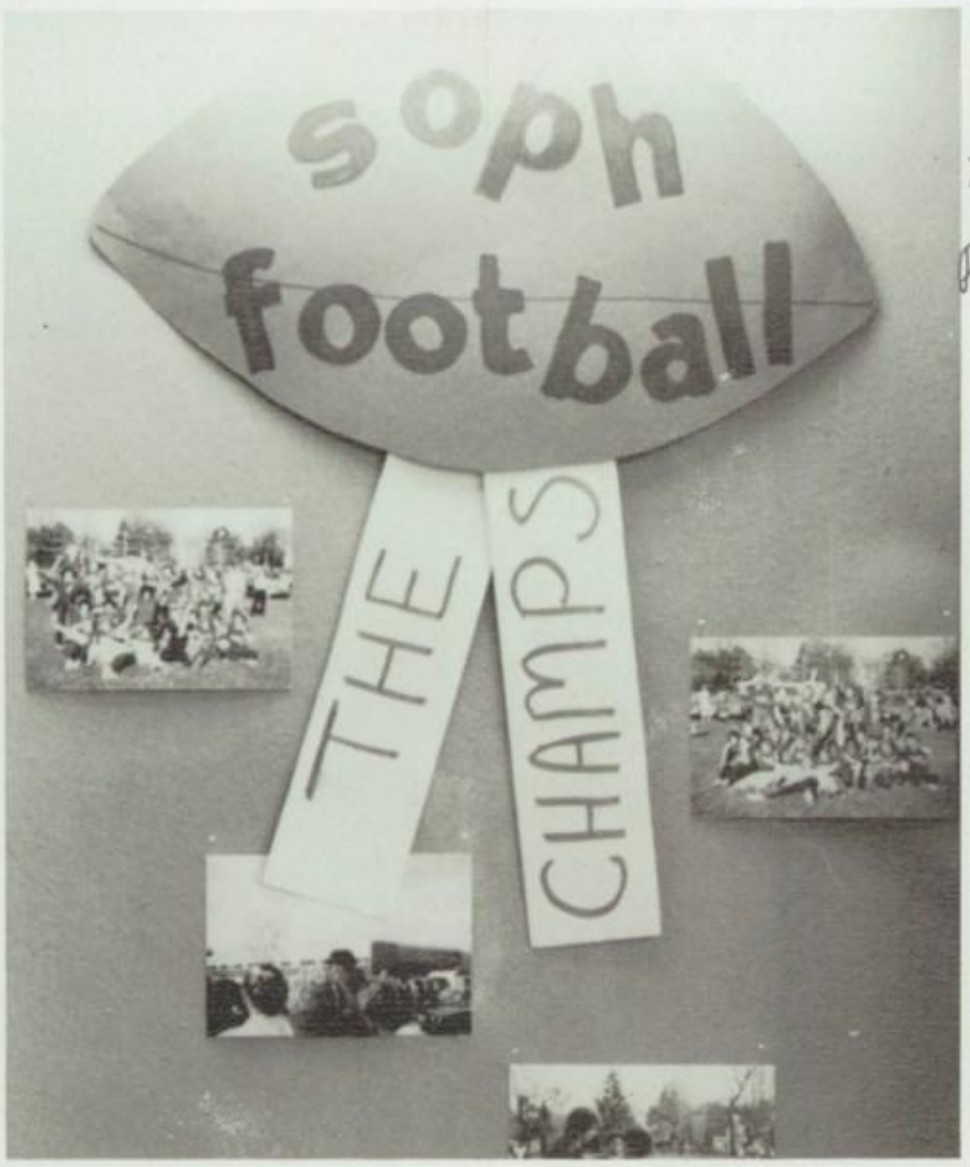
One activity that Sophomores were involved in was a picnic with St. John's Sophs. It appears that much fun was had at the picnic by Julie James, Karen Schroeder and friends.

Pride Evident in Soph Class

A biology book, Julius Caesar, SUA Day, and Yellow & Red . . . These things are synonymous with our Sophomores this year. The fears of Freshman year have subsided and now they are ready to make themselves known to all other classes. By showing outstanding spirit at all school activities, the Sophs display high energy enthusiasm. For sure, this year's Sophs certainly aren't bashful.

After they had succeeded in forming the pyramid, everyone came toppling down, and the picnic ended on a note of excitement.



The outcome of the powder puff football game is expressed in the display that was shown on the bulletin board in the downstairs lobby. The Sophs had succeeded in beating the Frosh.

Sophomore spirit was demonstrated right away on Monday morning of Spirit Week. They decorated a car and rode around the parking lot in it shouting Soph cheers. This showed everyone just how excited the "Super Sophs" were about winning the big game. Here, they chanted "'83,'83, '83!"

Junior Students' Enthusiasm Unites Class

The Junior class of '82 has almost reached the top of the pole. With one more year to go, they are really showing their talents, their enthusiasm and their potential. The Juniors work together as a class to make each other happy, and next year they will set the mood as they reach the top.

Junior Extracurricular Activities

Outside school, Juniors involve themselves in numerous activities. Some have part-time employment. There are many high school games to attend, parties to which girls make an appearance, weekends to be spent going out with the girls and boyfriends. Many girls complete the driver's education course and receive their licenses and start saving to buy gasoline for the family car. Others begin to study the courses and programs many colleges have to offer, and many of these schools are visited by Juniors and parents.

Camera Club "clicks" at S.U.A.

The Camera Club at SUA is full of fun, as well as learning how to use different types of cameras. The club plans many trips to places such as Blue Ribbon Photo and Wild Wood Preserve Park. The club also offers the student body picture taking contests.

It wasn't too cold for the camera club as they traveled the many winding trails at Wild Wood Preserve Park. They even managed to take some time out from their picture taking to pose for a quick snap shot of themselves!

Sharing, caring, and reaching out is what People Incorporated is all about. Once a week the members of the group visit the Sunshine Home in Maumee. The girls enjoy spending some of their free time reaching out and fulfilling the lives of special children. They talk with them, read to them and gain satisfaction through their work. A couple times a month the club creates beautiful smiles by visiting the sisters in the infirmary. They also walk across the street to the Sunset House, a home for the elderly women. People Incorporated touches the lives of many people in and around the community.

Taking some of her free time to visit the sisters in the infirmary is Katrina Schurfield. She finds it very rewarding to brighten the day with a smile and sharing it with those who may be feeling lonely and may need some company. Sr. Virginia seems to be enjoying the company of Katrina.

Performing Arts Develop Acting Ability

Performing Arts Club, under the direction of Miss Lang, Liz Tafelski and Liz Hamernik, Chairpersons, meet about once a month. The purpose of this club is to help the students recognize their acting ability, and give them a chance to demostrate through performing. They do this by putting on plays, and by participating in St. Johns or St. Francis plays or musicals. Performing Arts teaches the club members how to act in front of an audience and how to apply stage makeup. On February 1, 1981, the club put on a skit for the St. Ursula Open House, as entertainment for the eighth grade students.

Left: "OH DEAR!" Will we ever get it right?" Says, Liz Tafelski, on the left, to Johanna Meister and Liz Hamernik. The Performing Arts club is planning to put on a play for St. Ursula Academy. They will be performing and putting their skills into practice sometime in the Spring. In the mean time, they need a lot of practice in order to reach perfection. The play will be a comedy. The girls seem to be having lots of fun as they rehearse their lines.

Science Club Probes Depths of Knowledge

To satisfy an unending thirst for knowledge, the Science Club joins in search of new ideas. Visiting such places as the Ritter Planetarium and the Medical College aid them in this search.

Below: Checking the development of her plants is Moderator Sister Mary Jane Cosentino, who truly has a "green thumb."

SUA Afro-American Club Promotes Heritage

Above: Shevella Sloan represented the Afro-American Club the day of St. Ursula's Open House. Shevella told the newcomers stories of the beginning of black heritage that began hundreds of years ago.

The Afro-American Club, a first for SUA, is really moving right along. During Black History Month, they celebrated the lives of many famous Black Americans that were very prominent to their race.

Espanol is Fun

The Spanish Club members kept themselves occupied with projects all year long. One activity the club undertook was creating different kinds of piñatas, each with a personality of it's own. The club members displayed their works at the eighth grade open house held last February. It is a very busy club.

Below: Explaining the Spanish Clubs display and piñata to prospective students at Open House is Chris Anne Linkfield.

Members of the Spanish Club include Row 1: Eileen Hidalgo, JoAnn Manton, Stephanie Wagoner, Regina Metz, Carolyn Cwiklewski; Row 2: Kim Lyddy, Laurie Reifert, Kathleen Sprenger, Jane Schriner, Ellen Huffer, and Sue Loeb. The Spanish Club is a very active club and they have meetings outside of school as well as at school. Sometimes they go to Mexican restaurants for some of their meetings, and sample the different types of Mexican food. They also make piñatas, each having a different touch.

The Spanish I class gives a joyous baby shower for the Spanish student teacher Mrs. Gretchen Rymers. As you can see, the baby shower looks as if it was a great success by all of these happy faces.

Lingua Latina

The Latin Club is one of the most active clubs at S.U.A., with all members participating in club functions. Activities of the year included a celebration of Saturnalia (which is a joyous festival honoring Saturn) with St. Francis de Sales. The club also had a homemade pizza party at Mrs. Zavac's home.

Club Established For Adventurous Students

This year, Student Council voted in favor of having a new club at Saint Ursula — the Travel Club. The club was designed to explore various cities of the world and to visit these places. Some places that the club has investigated were London and New York. A trip to West Virginia was being planned.

The Travel Club is planning a trip and trying to decide where to go. Sandra Banton's interest is Europe. She is studying Europe in case she goes there someday, if not with the Travel Club.

There are many beautiful places to explore in Europe — London, Rome and many more. The Travel club decided to study different countries, then they will choose where to go.

Home Ec Club Uses Talents In Activities

The Home Ec Club meets once a month under the direction of Mrs. Kuennen, moderator, and Roni Flaggs, President. At meetings they enjoy nutritious refreshments as they play their activities. A field trip relating to food production is being planned by the club for the future.

The Home Economics club not only cooks and bakes but uses creative abilities in activities. Row I: Tamara McCready, Colleen Kuennen, and Gina Metz. Row II: Moderator Mrs. Kuennen, Sue Szumigala. Row III: Mary Gibbs, Nancy Billmaier and Vicki Gwozdz.

Christmas Performance

During the Christmas holidays the music students demonstrated their musical talents. This annual Christmas Concert proved very rewarding to the students.

Entertains Spectators

Listening to the sounds of the Junior and Concert Choirs during the concert is very enjoyable. The ensembles, orchestra, and band also provided great entertainment. Art Classes displayed work in the lobby.

Putting the Ursuline paper together is no easy job, and these students are living proof. Deadlines, writing articles and evaluating are just the beginning of newspaper production.

While taking their long break they better not get caught by Sr. Sue or else they won't be taking any more long breaks!

Being Co-editors can really get to T. Perretti and K. Sullivan.

"Movin' Right Along"

"Movin' Right Along," the 1980-81 Student Council has performed remarkably in coordinating events and activities and encouraging students to participate in school activities. Such activities include Movie Day, Box Dinner, Freshman Orientation and various assemblies. As moderator, Sr. Sue has been the guiding force behind all this success.

Movie Day, featuring Alfred Hitchcock's "Psycho," is among the many events sponsored by the 1980-81 Student Council, shown below.

Community Awareness Strengthens Students

The Drugs and Alcohol program at St. Ursula is an organization derived from the Teenage Institute which directs its main efforts to the prevention of drug and alcohol abuse in Ohio teens. Under the guidance of Mrs. Sawers and Sr. Mary Helen, a group of volunteers attend workshops providing peer counseling. While the Drugs and Alcohol program was attempting to direct people in need towards the right path, candidates for the 1980 Presidential election were trying to find plans of getting America on the road to recovery. St. Ursula held a Mock Election to allow the students to express their vote for president of the United States. The outcome of the S.U.A. election was somewhat like the national result: Reagan won by a landslide!

St. Ursula Opens Doors To Eighth Graders

On Sunday, February 1, 1981, St. Ursula Academy invited eighth grade girls and their parents to visit the school from two o'clock to five o'clock in the afternoon. The eighth graders were shown many of the different classrooms in the physical structure of S.U.A. while also being introduced to the academic subjects they will be taking in the near future. S.U.A.'s own students volunteered to guide the many families who turned out for the Open House. St. Ursula's Student Council was also present along with the Music Department to welcome the interested eighth graders.

SUA Girls Gain Community Acknowledgement

St. Ursula Girls not only supported SFS and SJ High Schools but also the community of Toledo. Contributing flag girls, cheerleaders, and three queens to the area gives SUA the gratification it truly deserves.

That Deep Feeling We've Got

Expressing the pride that lives in the hearts of every girl at S.U.A. is the purpose of pep rallies. Pride in her class, her school, and the teams which represent her school. Shouts of ". . . good old Freshmen pride!" '83! '83! '83!", ". . . do the Junior rumble!" and ". . . Seniors, Seniors are the best!" vibrate everything in the brick walls of St. Ursula Academy.

Inside — We Call It Our Ursuline Pride!

Besides intramurals, a week for all students to show their class spirit is Spirit Week. The purpose of Spirit Week is to bring about class unity and participation. Activities included this week are flag football games between all four classes, hall decorating and a pep rally. After all of the football games were over, the Sophs emerged victorious.

S.U.A. Events, Activities Not

Glancing over the events of the passing year, many of us will recall not only the friendships formed and the cherishable times had with fellow classmates, but also those times when students were given the opportunity to rekindle rare relationships with their parents. The Father-Daughter Dance, which took place on February 15, was a particularly nostalgic night for many dads and their special valentines. All Mothers and daughters are also encouraged to jointly participate in such events as Mother-Daughter bowling tournament, banquet suppers, and family picnics provided by the Mother's Club.

Festa-Fun For Everyone

The annual Cherry Blossom Festa, sponsored by the Ursuline nuns, has enjoyable activities for both the young and the young at heart. . .Delicious food, games, bingo, raffles, a bake sale, and White Elephant Sale highlight the day.

Right: "Look out Sister! Somebody is coming in for a landing!" Young people as well as old get into the carnival-like spirit of the Cherry Blossom Festa. It doesn't matter if you're one, or one hundred and one. Just let loose and have fun!

The rear area outside St. Ursula Turns into a favorite spot for socializing, games and food during the Cherry Blossom Festa, which attracts people from all over the city.

Intramural Preparation

Intramurals are something everyone looks forward to during the year. Much time is needed to organize a good basketball team. Team members spend many long hours practicing in hopes of gaining the coveted first place position.

Missing: Sr. Kathleen Padden, Jeanette Kleeberger.

Quiz Bowlers Not Stumped by Sly Questions

Members of the Quiz Bowl team surely are not puzzled over the questions asked of them during interschool matches. A knowledgeable mind and quick reflex at hitting the buzzer are qualities that enable our team to win over other schools in the city league Quiz Bowl.

Capturing Memories is Yearbook Business

After school, study halls and any free time the members of the Scroll staff can get a hold of they dedicate to producing our yearbook the Scroll. At times it seems like an endless job full of hardwork but it is all worth it in the end. Mrs. Holt our teacher-moderator is a large help to the staff when we just can't seem to find the right word.

Above left: Classroom 109 seems to be pulling ahead of all the other classes in the Patron Drive. The first homeroom that reached the top won a free lunch from McDonalds. Youthful Netters Fall Short of City Title

The 1980 varsity tennis team nearly had a city league championship in their pockets. Due to an unfortunate loss to the Notre Dame Eagles, by a score of 3-2, St. Ursula had to settle for a second place finish this year. Because of the youngness and talent of the team a future city league title is almost a certainty.

Below: Varsity tennis team: Sitting: Mrs. Frances Overberg; head coach, Julie Walsh, Terry Cardillo, Sue Dessner, and Mrs. Carson Assistant coach. Standing: Holly Carson, Clare Knauer, Paula Brooks, and Jane Seguin.

With arms upraised, is this players exercizing, reaching for the stars above, praising God, or did she just finish setting the ball with help from her friends?

Bump, Set, Spike

Power serving, setting, bumping and spiking are just some to the skills that are needed to play a winning game of volleyball. Our team knows all the moves to play very well.

The ball flies high as junior Diane Fleck leaps into the air to spike it over the net, and onto the opponent's side of the volleyball court.

Sharon Heban and Anneliese Steele show that four hands are better than two by pairing up to get the ball over the net.

Vying at the net for the point are the two opposing teams, St. Ursula in light and McCauley in dark. Well girls, so who finally did get the point?

Aqua Arrows Take Third Place in Districts

Swimming at St. Ursula lives again! After a short leave of absence from the scene, St. Ursula has started to build a top notch swim team. Although the dual meets were not victorious, the district meet was a big success. Because of a certain rule, our AAU swimmers could not join the team until the end of the season.

Below: One of the three seniors and the only diver on the team, Stephanie Stoll performs a very graceful backdive. Stephy also made the district cuts.

JV Arrows Enjoy Successful Season

The 1980-81 JV basketball team ended the year with an outstanding record. They learned to work together with their new team members to coordinate many successful game maneuvers.

Far above: Demonstrating her jumping ability is Chevette Labiche (40) as Julie Eastes (42) stands waiting to assist. Above: Racing to get the ball before Bowsher opponents do are Julie Eastes, (42), Chevette Labiche (40), and co-captain Pam Inglis (50). The arrows did acquire the ball.

Below: Involved in the jump ball against a Bowsher opponent is Tracy Bruning (34). Watching intently for the outcome of the jump ball are Kim Wheeler (22) and Chevette Labiche (40). The intensity of the game is expressed in the faces both team members and the audience.

Varsity Improves in City League

Though they have been city leaguers for only two years, the arrows are becoming a very competitive team. The team's capabilities are demonstrated through outstanding team members who work well together and maintain good poise during tense moments.

Wins-4 Losses-16

Above: Getting into proper position for scoring a goal is Anneliese Steele. The defending team members rush to prevent her from scoring as Laura Manzey prepares to back her up.

Below: Janelle Wood goes for the ball as Kristin Rupp casually blocks her kick. This tactic is perfected through such scrimmages as the one played above, during the warm-up session.

Above: Explaining the technique in heading the ball is captain Desi Divine. "Where do we get aspirin afterwords," asks Heidi Nunemaker, who's concerned about the aftereffects of this skill.

"Sock'em Team!"

Team strategy and defense are just some of the highlights of soccer. The SUA team strives to perfect this.

"Want to dance?" exclaims Janelle Wood to Laura Manzey. Laura, however, has her mind set on kicking the ball to score more points for her team.

"Oh no, stop the ball!" cries the opposing team.

No, they are not just ordinary juvenile delinquents hanging around in the parking lot, they are the members of the 1980-81 St. Ursula soccer team.

Exhuberant joy overwhelms the fine composure of Laura Manzey as she watches one of her teammates score a magnificent and well earned goal!

Doing their thing on the soccer field, Heidi Nunemaker, Anneliese Steele and Dorian Dutchess demonstrate how essential the skills of coordination and balance are in training for the title of "City League Champions."

Seniors Work to Get Job Done

Everyone thinks of Senior Year as a bowl of cherries, however, a lot of work goes on throughout the year. The officers never stop thinking of their class responsibilities but the homeroom reps aid them in all their endeavors.

During Turkey Trot Marina Petas, Karen Appold, Nonny Gantoz, Laila Mikhail, Toni Paterakis, Teresa Peretti, and Leslie Taite perform a unique and original song, "Another one eats the bird."

Seniors Ready for Superbowl

Although the seniors lost to the juniors in their first match, they came out victorious against the Frosh. Their mixture of talents ranging from Terry Bradshaw to Billy Sims to Franco Harris blew the Frosh out 27-6.

The ocean side city of Boston, Massachusetts, will always be cherished in the minds of the class of '81. The seniors endured a total of 36 hours on an Amtrak train going to and from Boston. This rowdy group of seniors will never forget some of the most famous sites of Boston and its environs: Faneuil Hall, The Old North Church, the U.S.S. Constitution, and the Salem Witch House. Everyone also seemed to enjoy the presence of a masculine Bostonian!

New Dimensions

Exchange students add a new dimension to life at St. Ursula. Finding out how they like SUA, comparing teenagers in their respective homelands to those here and what similar activities are enjoyed are the topics commonly discussed.

In Memory of Lisa

LISA A. KRASNIEWSKI
Oct. 4, 1963-Jan. 16, 1981

IN MEMORY OF LISA KRASNIEWSKI

The hard times come and the hard times go
And along with them the tears will flow,
Then again, there are the good times,
That is when we like to say "They're all mine!"
Sometimes if you think that its the end
Remember it's just one of life's many bends
We recall the happy memories, and we weep
This we do because they are only to keep
And we know we cannot relive them.
Our love for Lisa will not fade,
She will always be in our hearts
Just like the friendships she has made
Because it is there that she is such a part.
We'll miss the fun and the helping hand that she had shown
And the wonderful experiences that we've all known.
Remember that life is a gift, and think of Lisa
Because too soon did she depart
But the memories of her will linger forever in our hearts.

A poem written and read by Jama Thornton for Lisa at the Memorial Mass for Lisa at St. Ursula on Jan. 22, 1981.

The Yearbook staff was not always so calm, cool and collected! They worked through cyclones, tornados and Mrs. Holt; Mrs. Holt survived earthquakes and the staff! All are alive and well!

When you looked in the glass, what did you see?

We hope you saw . . . a reflection of your past year, your image at present, and your vision of what is yet to come; all made possible because of this year at S.U.A. Treasure these precious moments, these warm encounters, these beautiful attitudes and majestic discoveries . . . for they are jewels placed in the mirror of your destiny.

The Scroll Staff

Call It Charisma

When you get what you want in your struggle for self,
And the world makes you king for a day;
Then go to the mirror and look at yourself
And see what the guy has to say.

For it isn't your father or mother or wife
Whose judgment upon you must pass;
The fellow whose verdict counts most in your life
Is the guy staring back from the glass.

He's the fellow to please, never mind all the rest,
For he's with you clear up to the end;
And you've passed your most dangerous, difficult test
If the guy in the glass is your friend.

You may be like Jack Horner and chisel a plum,
And think you're a wonderful guy;
But the man in the glass says you're only a bum
If you can't look him straight in the eye.

You can fool the whole world down the pathway of years,
And get pats on the back as you pass;
But your final reward will be heartaches and tears
If you've cheated the guy in the glass.

In order to produce an effective yearbook, the abilities of several people must be united, We, the yearbook staff, would like to thank the following people for their time and patience: To Mr. Baumker for all of the time he put into taking group pictures; to Joe Seguin, Toni Paterakis, and Colette Normand for contributing pictures; to Debbie Podiak and Jill Wersell for giving up their time to be photographers; to Mr. Bynum of Hunter Publishing company for his help at deadlines; to Powell and LaHote Studios for Senior and Underclass photos. A special thanks goes out to Sr. Sue for taking care of the money and paper work during the patron drive; to Sr. Mary Rose for helping with copy and putting up with the yearbook staff during her Advanced Composition class; and to all of the faculty for their understanding. A huge thank you to the members of the Scroll staff; Ellen Huffer for Faculty and Academics; to Stephy Stoll, for Activities; to Ellie Smith, for Senior class section; Denise Reynolds as Layout editor; to Jane Seguin, Sport editor; to Sonya McDonnell, Copy editor; to Le Ann Siegle, Underclass editor; to Marty Fisher, Patty Bartkavage, and Vickie Moran as Art editors; to Frieda Sevatakis, as our Business Manager.

We give our unending gratitude to Mrs. Ethlyn Holt, for her help in all aspects of producing our yearbook, Through the Looking Glass.

LOUISE-
I'll try my hardest to write small. This year was great, especially in Religion. You and Vicki never stopped talking the whole year. You guys crack me up. I hope you find a gorgeous guy for the summer, I know I'm going to find a fox— (probably not).
Oh. Well maybe I'll see you over the summer and if not then see ya next year.
Love,
Marie.

To Louise: A very nice girl in my Bio./Gym, French, English and Typing classes. I'm sick of looking at you girl (smile) But it has really been a good year, especially typing. Good Luck for the future and have a great summer. Be good and stay out of trouble.

Louise, Well you're a real nice and crazy girl. I hope you have a great summer & stay that way.
Bye

Louise,
To another many of Janis favorite little student! This year has been a lot of fun, now we only have 2 more years! (of Mrs Sawers) Have a great summer!
Love,
Lisa

* Well with yell on

Louise, Hi. How's Life?? Hasn't this year been great?? I had a good time. But I can't wait 'til next year. I'm really gonna do some good things next year. Sister Bio is neat I'm glad I'm in that way. Sister Bio is neat I'm glad I'm in that way. Sister Bio is neat I'm glad I'm in that way
